The benefits of animals for children's development

Perceived benefits

Animals have anecdotally been reported as being of benefit to children by parents, teachers and childcare professionals for a number of years. Some of the benefits reported include:

- Improving confidence and learning about unconditional love
- Teaching empathy and respect
- Understanding the circle of life
- Learning to appreciate nature and the natural world
- Teaching responsibility
- Helping with communication
- Scientifically-researched benefits
- As well as anecdotal reports, there have also been a number of scientific studies confirming some measurable benefits in children. Pets have been shown to:
  - help lower blood pressure
  - reduce stress and anxiety
  - make recovery times shorter
  - improve social interactions
  - improve self-worth
  - reduce loneliness and depression

In children with autism spectrum disorder (ASD), researchers found the children demonstrated more social behaviours and received more social approaches from their peers when animals were present, compared to when toys were present.

HEALTH AND SAFETY

Child Safety First

As your child becomes more independent and spends more time in the outside world, it is important that you and your child are aware of ways to stay safe. Here are a few tips to protect your child:

- Tell your child why it is important to stay out of traffic. Tell him not to play in the street or run after stray balls.
- Be cautious when letting your child ride her tricycle. Keep her on the sidewalk and away from the street and always have her wear a helmet.
- Check outdoor playground equipment. Make sure there are no loose parts or sharp edges.
- Watch your child at all times, especially when he is playing outside.
- Be safe in the water. Teach your child to swim, but watch her at all times when she is in or around any body of water (this includes kiddie pools).
- Teach your child how to be safe around strangers.
- Keep your child in a forward-facing car seat with a harness until he reaches the top height or weight limit allowed by the car seat's manufacturer. Once your child outgrows the forward-facing car seat with a harness, it will be time for him to travel in a booster seat, but still in the back seat of the vehicle.

WATER BOTTLES

Keeping hydrated is extremely important. Kindly send your child/ children with a water bottle to school every day. Water bottles are easier to take to different classes and make for easy refilling when needed.

THANK YOU!!!

And reminder to kindly check your child/children's nails to ensure that they are clean and short length for school.
